Petrification Restoration Project

Blurb

Amber Sawyaert is a short human woman, frustrated with the world and her studies, and ready to throw hands.

Turns out, living in a city blend flat with nothing but a toilet, a hotplate, a fold-out bed, a shitty internet connection, and a rat, does wonders for your capacity for violence. So, when a ragtag group shows up and tender finds out that the corporation she's been inventing for - with the promise of funding her doorstep - is even more shady than she'd anticipated, the sort-really surprises. But she is prone to deliver retribution.
